AURORA

UNION HIGH SCHOOL

Grand Rapids, Michigan

Volume XXVII

June, 1938

Foreword

The Aurora staff has made an effort to produce a yearbook which will bring back memories of happy days at Union in 1937-38.

We believe that a photograph album and a diary are perhaps the most effective way of recalling the past, so in our memory book we are making these the outstanding features.

Our album contains, for the first time, in addition to the usual senior pictures, informal snapshots of the faculty and group pictures of the ninth, tenth, and eleventh grades.

School life is portrayed in the diary of Jean Unionite. Her activities and interests symbolize those of the average girl student; while the activities and interests of her friend, Joe Highschool, symbolize those of the average boy student.

The staff hopes that in the years to come this memory book will bring happy recollections and that our readers will enjoy reviewing its pages as much as we have enjoyed preparing them.

Dedication

To Miss Myrtle Heseltine, adviser of the school newspaper, The Reflector, and former adviser of the annual, we dedicate this Aurora. She has surmounted the innumerable difficulties which beset a high school publications adviser to produce Reflectors and Auroras worthy of being called Union's own.

The Aurora won All-American honors in 1936 under her capable direction. No other Grand Rapids high school in the last eight years has produced a year-book which has won All-American honors, and in 1936 no other high school in Michigan won this distinction. Miss Heseltine was a pioneer in the use of action pictures to replace the stiff, posed groups in annuals of by-gone days.

The Reflector received First Class rating in 1936 and 1937, another tribute to our hard working adviser's ingenuity and willingness to experiment.

Working on the Reflector staff, students become aware of her consideration to all with whom she comes in contact. She would refuse to allow any item to appear in the paper if she thought that it would hurt someone's feelings even an infinitesimal amount. She strives to make her students appreciate and achieve accuracy, that prime requisite of publications work.

She knows how to take a joke, loves fun, and has the knack of pleasing everybody. She knows and understands boys and girls and helps them improve themselves.

We salute Miss Heseltine!

In Memoriam

"Loyalty is the holiest thing in the human heart."—Seneca

The passing of Mr. William J. Pearn on February 8, 1938, brought sorrow and a distinct sense of loss to students and teachers who were in any manner associated with him. His cheerfulness, helpfulness, and extended interest in the school benefited Union High School both morally and physically. Whatever was of interest to Union was of interest to Mr. Pearn. He constantly strove to assist in solving his students' social and vocational problems.

He was born February 13, 1881. Following his graduation from Western State Teachers College, he began his career at Lewis Institute in Chicago, by teaching machine shop there as he did for twenty-one years at Union. It was in Chicago that he learned the tool and die trade at which he was most skillful.

In September, 1916, he came to Union to teach machine shop, mechanical drawing, and mathematics. He kept his own shop in utmost orderliness and in his spare time made several machines for the science laboratory.

Keeping his car in perfect running order was his hobby. Although not a sportsman, he was a lover of birds, animals, and the out-of-doors and was keenly interested in the preservation of nature.

During his last illness, new machines, obtained largely through his efforts, had been brought into his shop. His last wish was to see these machines and the shop in which he had served so long.

Loyalty and devotion such as Mr. Pearn's is an inspiration to all.

JEAN'S ALBUM

In this section we present an almost complete collection of pictures of the faculty and students at Union High School.

We believe that if you study the photographs of the senior girls you will eventually see a picture of an average senior girl, whom we are going to call Jean Unionite. Likewise if you study the faces of the senior boys, you will come to know Jean's friend, Joe Highschool.

Among the ninth grade pictures you will find Joe's kid brother, Tommy. Jean's younger sister, Barbie, typifies the tenth graders.

Joe and Jean's senior friends — more than three hundred and seventy in number — constitute the largest group that has ever been graduated from Union High School.

The pictures of their ninth, tenth, and eleventh grade friends are an innovation, for this is the first time that the entire student body has been pictured in an Aurora.

We hope that in the years to come the owners of this book will, as they re-turn the pages of our album, revive happy memories of schoolday friendships.

The Administration

Mr. Everest, our energetic principal, is determined that Unionites take part in extra-curricular activities during their school years. In the picture he is talking with Geraldine Merritt, Gerald Dribbin, Louise Lanski, and Genevieve Kwiatkowski about plans for the traveling assembly.

That student leadership and responsibility should be cultivated by high school students is the belief of Mr. Everest; and it is in this direction that he advises the Student Council, which is the student governing body.

It is Mr. Everest, also, who listens to the troubles of all of us, faculty and students alike, and helps us in our difficulties.

Miss Blanche Mann, assistant principal, with the aid of Miss Helen Olsen and Miss Violet Favel, office clerks, has complete charge of the attendance of Union's two thousand, two hundred thirty-two high school and one hundred three grade school students. In addition to this work, she is principal of Turner Elementary School and looks after the four hundred twenty children there.

At Union Miss Mann is a very busy person; for, besides her numerous other duties, she is the adviser of the Service Squad, which keeps our halls in business like order, and the supervisor of the N. Y. A. workers, who help the faculty when there are odd jobs to be done.

The Teaching Staff

To help choose a new text book is the problem confronting the mathematics department. Pictured from left to right are Miss Edith J. Vandenberg, Miss Ina A. Findlay, Miss Harriet Schroder, Miss Mary Mac Lennan, Mr. Fred Voss, Miss Nelle Atwood, Mr. William R. Pease, and Mr. Floyd L. Early.

New specimens are the topic for discussion at a meeting of the science department. The members are, from left to right, Mr. Lemuel G. Holbrook, Mr. Henry H. Hornbeck, Mr. Oren D. Stiehl, Mr. Clayton W. Bazum, Miss Elizabeth I. Perrin, Mr. John Hess, and Mr. Keith Kennedy.

The members of the commercial department watch a demonstration of the new Monroe electrically-driven calculating machine. From left to right, they are Mr. Forrest E. Larr, Miss Ruby Potter, Miss Claris Richardson, Miss Edna Maxon, Miss Elizabeth B. Crotser, Miss Clementine Williams, Miss Marie Mc Dermott, Mr. Oren D. Stiehl, Mr. Arthur J. Avery, and Mr. Forrest F. Barr.

Here you see a meeting of a consultation group of English, speech, and language teachers. They are, from left to right, Miss Olga Pershbacher, Mr. Stanley Albers, Miss Grace Thomas, Miss Dorothy J. Farr, Miss Dorothy S. Blake, Miss Myrtle Heseltine, Miss Ruth Carpenter, and Miss Ethel Scholes.

Mabel E. Allen

The Teaching Staff

The exponents of physical fitness at Union High are discussing recent changes in the basket ball rules. Members of the athletic staff are Mr. W. Maynard Ellingson, Miss Margaret E. Mac Donald, Mr. John Hess, Mr. Luther Vander Broek, and Mr. Elmer

The teachers of art and music consult the librarians about new books and magazines of special interest to them. Those pictured are, from left to right, Mr. Theodore Fryfogh, Miss Florence Best, Miss Lucille Ralston, Miss Florence Parsell, Mrs. Alice Peckham, and Mrs. Frances Linn. Miss Edith Barker, not in the picture, is also a member of the art faculty.

Mr. George Guy, Mr. Merle Howe, Mr. Paul F. Marekwardt, Mr. Frederick A. Kuhn, Mr. Ernest F. Vreeland, and Mr. Dee A. Reynders, industrial arts teachers, look on while Mr. E. G. Bengston shows them how his new jig saw machine operates.

The merits of a new gas range are under discussion by the home economics teachers, Miss Maude A. Traut, Miss Elizabeth Doukeray, Miss Marie C. Neuman, Miss Laura L. Rowson, Miss Anita Holland, and Miss Lura V. Sipe.

Our Busy Teachers

Representing Union on committees choosing new books is an extra task for some of our faculty. Miss Mabel Allen is helping to choose new English texts. Miss Mary Mac Lennan is the city chairman of the mathematics committee who will select an elementary math book. On the committee for the selection of a physics text are Mr. Lemuel Holbrook and Mr. Fred Voss.

Mr. Clayton Bazuin was the first person to discover the nesting place of the Arkansas king bird in Michigan. He also won the Grand Rapids Audubon migration prize for the year 1937. Recently he was elected chairman for two years of the finance and membership committee of the Michigan Education Association.

Miss Florence Best is the author of an article, "Experiments in Student Directing," which appeared in the Music Educators Journal for October-November, 1937. She has also written the music for an operetta which was put on in Ann Arbor March 13 and 14, 1938, and is chairman of the music department of the fourth district of the Michigan Education Association.

Miss Elizabeth Dockeray and her clothing classes proved to be real Samaritans when they provided Christmas cheer for sixty-five at the Juvenile Home. Refreshments and new and renovated presents were distributed to the children.

"Once Glorious Galena," an article written by Miss Esther E. Eby, was published in the Journal of the Illinois Historical Society, in July, 1937. Miss Eby also acted as supervisor of the 1937 Aurora, which won All-American rating.

Winning of the regional tournament was the achievement of the Union basketball team, coached by Mr. Maynard (Doc) Ellingson. Hard work and perseverance have made Union city champion three times in three years and have given us thirty straight victories over city teams.

The Union band under the direction of Mr. Theodore Fryfogle won second prize at the Tulip Festival at Holland in May, 1937.

Early last December an original skit was broadcast over Station WOOD by Miss Myrtle Heselstine's journalism classes. The skit, "Deadline," showed typical publications staff work and proved a huge success.

Girls in Miss Marie Mc Dermott's session room labored diligently to get enough money to attend the concerts of the Grand Rapids Symphony orchestra. "Where there's a will, there's a way" was proved once again when the girls, aided by Miss Mc Dermott, through food sales and the sale of rags and paper finally raised the necessary money.

Miss Valora Quinlan represents the high schools on the city Junior Red Cross board.

Miss Grace Thomasma was one of the quick-witted participants in a discussion group dealing with the question, "Curriculum Revision on the Secondary School Level," at the fourth district convention of the M.E.A. last November.

Miss Maude Traut is president of the Past Matrons Association, York Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star, and acting secretary of the Grand Rapids Home Economics Club.

Among Union faculty travelers is Miss Lucille Dunn, who made an extensive tour of Sweden, Denmark, Finland, Russia, Poland, and Germany last summer. Miss Blanche Mann, assistant principal, has given many lectures on her recent trip to Bermuda. Sunny Bermuda was also the place chosen by Miss Geraldine Masters for her last vacation trip. There is probably no more widely-traveled teacher at Union than Miss Florence Parsell, who has gone to Alaska by boat and traveled fifteen hundred miles down the Yukon; enjoyed a camping trip through the West; visited Mexico; painted at Cape Ann, Gloucester, and Provincetown, Massachusetts; and made two trips to Europe. Following her last summer's trip to Germany, Miss Emma Zur Meuhlen has given many lectures, on that country including one to the Grand Rapids unit of the American Association of University Women.

THE STUDENT BODY

Let us introduce to you half of Union's students gathered on September 30 for the first assembly of the year. You will see them many times on the following pages. We would like to show all of our school's two thousand, two hundred, and thirty-two, but the auditorium accommodates only half of them at one time. The following day the other students went to a repetition of the same program.

Union's three hundred and seventy-two seniors, five hundred and five juniors, five hundred and twenty-seven sophomores, three hundred and ten freshmen, two hundred and seventy nine eighth graders, and two hundred and thirty nine seventh graders are always glad when it is their turn to go to an assembly. No other school event or activity has such universal student appeal.

More students assemble in the auditorium at one time than ever gather in any other one place. Thus it would be possible for you to meet more students at an assembly than at any other place.

If you think that there is a slightly bored or skeptical look on the students' faces at this particular assembly, it is because they are listening to the campaign promises of the candidates for the Student Council presidency. Gerald Dribbin, our silver-tongued orator, won the student election held at the close of the meeting.

The general quietude and attentiveness which prevail at assemblies prove that they are both educational and interesting to the students.

We hope that, if you cannot find yourself in this picture, you will be able to do so in the succeeding pages which contain senior, junior, sophomore, and freshman pictures.

Class of 1939

That active group of students known as the class of 1939 has accomplished many things this year under the able direction of Miss Nelle Atwood, adviser

The first task was to appoint a ring committee who, with students from lower grades, were to select a new class ring. After numerous meetings a choice was made to the satisfaction of everyone

Next the juniors cooperated in putting on an inter-class, senior high dance, the Sleigh-Bell Swing

They worked diligently to help make the third annual Round-up a success by sponsoring a night club, which, with eats and a floor show, proved one of the brightest spots of Union's 1938 fiesta.

As a rule, the social highlight of any school year is the junior-senior prom. This year's farewell to the class of 1938 proved no exception to the rule, for the class of '39 gave the seniors a rousing time which they will long remember

Class of 1940

The sophomore class launched its activities for the year on October 14, 1937, by electing Robert Van Allsburg class president. The other officers were vice president, Carol York; secretary, Dorothy Rietberg; girl and boy treasurers, Margaret Krause and Leon Nowacki respectively. Sophie Chmurynski was chairman of the nominating committee.

During the year the sophs participated in many school affairs. At the all-school Christmas party held December 17, they were in charge of the refreshments and ping pong.

The Round-up, the annual school carnival, saw the sophomores again hard at work sponsoring a court room skit with Jack Stanley acting as judge. The defendants were the performers of a raided night club who appeared before the judge to get his opinion on the legality of their acts. Those appearing before the bar of justice were: Rosemary Martin, Frances Siebeniec, and Arline Shea in a jazz ballet; Casimira Pilarz and Maxine Catell, toe dancers; Alyce Faasen and Jeanne Housington, negro dialogists; and James Himan, Gordon Tendt, Chester Hornbeck, and Ray Bier, blues singers.

Sophie Chmurynski, Geraldine Merritt, Leon Nowacki, Robert Van Allsburg, and Richard De Vries acted on the committee assisting Mr. Everest in choosing the class ring. Margaret Jean Smith acted as chairman of this committee.

The class is planning to raise money to buy roller skates which they hope to give to the school.

Miss Clarissa Richardson, shorthand and typing instructor, and Mr. Floyd Early, mathematics instructor, are the competent advisers of the sophomores.

Class of 1941

Creating a feeling of social relationship among the class members was the object of this year's freshmen. Under the excellent guidance of their adviser, Miss McDermott, and a staff of capable officers this undertaking was accomplished.

At the election held in November, the officers elected were: president, Lester Wolfson; vice president, Betty Ghering; secretary, Frances Johnson; treasurer, William Lovett; publicity, Ernest Mauzy; and athletic, Jack Verschoor.

The sales manager was Frances Johnson. William Lovett was the class reporter. Ernest Mauzy handled the parties. The chairman of the publicity committee was Jack Verschoor. Paul Goolian and Mary Jean Hess were in charge of all athletic events.

At the assembly given by the freshmen, the Student Council, gave a talk on co-operation.

The freshmen class was very successful in their efforts to create a feeling of social relationship among the members of the class. The class was more successful than the first.

The freshmen class was very successful in their efforts to create a feeling of social relationship among the members of the class. The class was more successful than the first. The maintenance of the high standards for which Union stands. Because freshmen were members and officers in various clubs, their influence was felt in numerous school activities.

According to a custom begun in 1937, by the freshman class, prizes of five dollars each were given to the freshman boy and girl with the highest scholastic average.

This year two additional awards of five dollars were given to the boy and girl with the highest leadership ability. These awards were made in the belief that leadership is an admirable characteristic — comparable with scholarship.

The winner of the boy's scholastic award this year was Tom Edison, and the winner of the girl's was Genevieve Kwiatkowski.

The boy winner of the leadership award was Lester Wolfson. He was president of the freshman class and a member of the Stamp and Humane Clubs.

The girl's leadership award went to Frances Johnson. She was chairman of sales for the freshmen class and for the Humane Club and secretary of the Campfire Girls.

Jean's Diary

Through Jean Unionite's diary we shall attempt to show you the trend of life at Union High School. Jean is a busy senior who takes an active part in club and organization activities.

Jean's friends belong to the French Club, the Audubon Club, the National Honor Society, the Student Council, and various other school organizations.

Joe Highschool is Jean's boy friend, and we find him interested in basketball, baseball, and other sport activities. He is a member of the R. O. T. C. and the boys' Hi-Y Club.

Barbie, Jean's sophomore sister, is also in the diary and finds life at Union interesting.

Tommy, Joe Highschool's freshman brother, enjoys the hustle and bustle of school activities.

We hope that the reader — as he reviews the diary of Jean Unionite from time to time — will, with Joe and Jean and Tommy and Barbie, relive happy days at Union.

October 7

Spent all the money I had for a season football ticket so had to borrow six bits from the kid sister today to pay my chemistry fee. Barbie can spare it, but the Board of Education can't, it seems

October 9

Community Council Day at the Catholic Central game, played at Ninth Street Field. Joe and I almost burst our lungs, but our team got licked 20-0

October 12

Senior class election. Again the boys were smart and concentrated their efforts on one candidate, Tony Zimnowski, who was elected. The girls split their vote between Betty Edison and Virginia Roh. Virginia became vice-president by winning second place.

October 13

Brr! The first snow flakes of the season made us shiver on our Audubon Club hike to Amon Park

October 14

The first Reflector looks great with its modernized type and make up

October 15

Night hawks? Not our team! We lost our first evening game to Central, at Houseman Field. The score was 6-0

"Bogey" Baranowski is small, but he's a package of T N T, when he gets his hands on the ball

October 18

Joe has been talking about the plans the Varsity Club is making for the homecoming dance. After their meeting Thursday the Aurora photographer caught them on the stairs. Popeye hasn't anything on them. Look at the "muscle."

October 22

Union's musclemen held the Davis Tech team to a scoreless tie. Joe, Barbie, Tommy, and I hiked to Houseman Field. All of the players put up a good defense, but Barbie saw only her hero, Bill Miller

October 27

Hooray! No school for two whole days. We vacation while the teachers attend their convention

October 29

After a movie Joe and I picked up a white sheet (with Barbie beneath it) from the U. H. S. Club Halloween party in Edison's barn. Of course she'd had a "simply marvelous" time.

October 30

Ki-yi-yi-yi! We were out after Ottawa's scalp today. Ed Post scored the first touch down of the season, but Ottawa got the best of us, 7-6

November 6

What a day! Joe and I went to the most exciting game so far this season Muskegon at Ninth Street Field. We scored two touchdowns against the state champs of 1936 even though we lost '12. How that Ellingson can run! Everyone had a good time after the game at the Homecoming Strut sponsored by the Varsity Club.

November 8

Hooray! We won the speedball game from the sophs today, 16-6. Barbie does n't think it is so swell though.

November 10

Today's assembly was the climax of American Education Week for Unionites. Mel Jones's reading of "America First" certainly impressed me!

November 12

The winners of an essay contest received their awards in assembly today. Prizes of money and theater tickets, along with a Red Hawk Flag for the school, were presented by a member of the Community Council. Ethel Niemi won first prize.

November 13

Briggs Field was a sea of mud, and the weather suited our mood perfectly when Creston beat us 13-0.

November 18

At the assembly the Reverend Milton M. Mc Gorrill gave an interesting talk on "Why I Read" in celebration of Book Week.

November 19

Barbie has just been telling me about the good talk Miss May Quigley of Ryerson Library gave the junior high assembly today.

November 24

We had another football broadcast to night. It was held with South High this time, because of the big game tomorrow. It certainly was a swell broadcast and there was yelling enough to satisfy every body.

November 25

After stuffing ourselves with turkey, Joe, Barbie, Tommy, and I went to the game today. We lost, worse luck, 7-0. Anyhow the band formation couldn't have been better. Even the students from South admitted that.

November 30

Athletic Council meeting today. Now that our gridiron heroes are about through with a season of hard fighting for good old Union, we students are going to work up a little energy ourselves and boost our basketball players on to a triumphant series of games.

December 1

Joe is out for the basketball team, along with Olszewski, Ellingson, Obermeyer, K... Post, Stapleton, Wie... Zimnowski, and Mioduchowski.

December 3

Joe saw the team defeat Wayne 35-20.

December 4

Happened to be in the library this morning and saw Coach Hess congratulating Captain Michalak on making the all-city football team.

December 10

The Junior Red Cross met. One of our major activities is exchanging portfolios and letters with students of foreign nations.

December 13

Wuxtra! Wuxtra! Joe and I celebrated Christmas the Spanish way. The holiday fiesta of the Spanish Club, included a bull fight and a new way to distribute gifts.

December 14

The annual kid's party given by the Girls' "U" Club allowed us gals a chance to work off all the goodness we have been accumulating in anticipation of Santa's visit. The Aurora photographer was there and caught members Staskiewicz, De Witt, Hewartson, Molnar, Rafferty and Eisenwein.

December 15

The boys in Mr. Marckwardt's and Mr. Bengtson's classes are making toys for children whose parents can't afford to give them a Christmas present. Tommy says the boys have nearly worn the things out playing with them.

December 16

Mm mm—the Christmas dinner in the cafeteria was good. Carols were sung between the courses of turkey, squash, baking-powder biscuits, cranberry jam, and mince pie.

Mr. Albers's and Miss Smallie's public speaking classes put on a beautiful and impressive Christmas pageant this afternoon.

December 17

Our basketball team is after its fourth championship in five years. Tonight they defeated Tech, 40-18. After the game we went to an all school party, the Sleigh-Bell Swing.

Hurrah for two whole weeks of vacation!

EXAM EXAM

Armitage, Maloney, Barbour, Burn, ... Me Kenzie, Bouzman, Miss Thomas, and other

January 7

Joe and I had the thrill of seeing Union's cagers retain first place in the city basketball league by defeating the Central Hilltoppers, 25-21.

January 11

Went to Trinity Community Hall where Union's vocal department held their January concert. Our student directors deserved all the applause they received for their splendid work.

January 13

I was glad to be on the retiring Reflect or staff this week. Our "cubs", the beginning journalism class, gave us a rest by putting out this week's edition.

January 18

Ambled over to Creston's gym to see the Polar Bears trounced by our own Red Hawks, 21-15. Some game! Looks as though Union is headed for another city championship.

January 19

Our hard-working Service Squad brought out the accumulated junk of years and had a motley display of lost articles. I looked and looked for my lost compact but could not spy it.

January 21

Joe and I saw the Union quintet defeat the Catholic Central Cougars 29-19.

January 25

Mr. Frank Sparks, editor of the Grand Rapids Herald, had quite a chat with the modern problems class, so Joe tells me. And of all the nice things Mr. Sparks said about the class in his "Reflections of an Editor" column!

January 28

Joe took me to the tenth annual Sno Shu Shuffle, sponsored by the U. H. S. Club. We all had fun "trucking" to the swiny music of Eddie Marek and his band.

Judging by Barbie's voice, she yelled herself hoarse at the Union-Ottawa game. The game was important, for Ottawa was our closest rival; but we nosed them out, 26-23, for our eighth straight victory of the year.

January 29

Alas and alack! Here's where I burn some midnight oil. Semester exams begin Friday. Too much work and no play may make Joe a dull boy, but a little study will make Jean a bright student—I hope!

February 2

What a sigh of relief I gave as I handed in my last exam paper today!

February 4

Made the rounds collecting my first semester's credit slips this morning

Tonight the fighting Red Hawks played the South Trojans. The game, which decided who would occupy first place in the city league, attracted so many people that Joe and I almost didn't get seats. The Trojans gave us a bad scare, but we won 19-17.

February 7

Barbie and I started for school early this morning to be sure to get into all of the classes we wanted. What a mad rush! I had to change my program twice because classes were filled

February 9

Joe happened to talk to Coach Liskey about the basket ball second team today, and he got some interesting information. The Union boys, who won five games and lost five games, scored 218 points to their opponents' 215. The game with South was by far the best game the Red and White Seconds played. The boys fought hard until the final whistle and were on the upper end of a 21 to 19 score at the climax

When Joe asked the coach about individual stars, Mr. Liskey showed him his record book. Out of the total 218 points scored by Union, Bert DeVries scored 118 points; "Red" Linacre and Joe Cimoch tied for second with 36 points each

February 10

As I looked around the session room this morning and saw how studious the girls were, I decided that, like me, they're all determined to get better marks this semester than they did last. Joe says the boys seem to have made some new semester resolutions, too

February 11

We saw Union swamp Tech 45-12 to retain undisputed possession of first place

February 18

Union won again to gain their tenth straight victory of the season! This time they defeated Central 38-19

February 21

The Cardinals became the champs of the Senior Intramural League

February 22

At the patriotic assembly today, Mr. Sparks, editor of the Herald, was our speaker.

February 24

Barbie came home simply thrilled about the dog that she saw at the Humane Club meeting. It's evident there'll be no peace until this family owns a dog for Barb to treat humanely

March 1

Joe took me to Creston tonight to see our Red Hawks beat the Polar Bears 33 to 23. This gives us the city championship

March 4

Our team beat Catholic 31 to 19 tonight to stretch our winning streak to thirteen games this season

March 8

Three representatives of the League of Women Voters, Mrs. Raabe, Mrs. Amberg, and Mrs. Baker, presented a round table discussion and explained the aims of their organization at the Senior Girls' League meeting after school today. It was such an interesting discussion that I stayed and didn't get home until late. Our president, Ethel Niemi, presided well

March 9

I worked on the miniature Roman house our Latin Club is building. Guess it won't be long now before I'll know how the early Romans lived

March 10

Ushered tonight at the senior play, "Seven Keys to Baldpate."

Joe went to Muskegon Heights to see the opening of the regional tournament. He says we won another game, 30-23. Kloet, Krause, Obermeyer, and Ellingson did some fine defensive work

March 11

I saw the senior play again, and I thought it was worth seeing twice

Our team beat the Big Reds at Muskegon tonight 26 to 17. According to the girls, Mioduchowski was the hero

March 17

Joe and I went to the Civic Auditorium tonight to see the quarter finals in the state basketball tournament. Our team played hard and fast, but Kalamazoo Central was a little too good for us, piling up 39 to our 31.

March 20

Union makes the front page of the Sunday Herald! Calets Quigley and Hanson show the long and short of our ROTC.

March 22

Another assembly! The National Honor Society pledged twenty-two new members, Joe among them, and was he proud! Dr. Kilgour, of the Church of Christ, gave an excellent talk.

March 23

Disappointment! The Audubon Club members were all set to go for a hike and it rained cats and dogs.

March 25

At last! After two weeks of high-pressure ticket selling, the third annual Round up got under way. Joe took tickets for the Latin Club roller skating rink and I had to sell white elephants for the Audubon Club. It was nearly eleven before we reached home.

March 26

Another night of the Round-up. I collected tickets at the dance which the Senior Girls' League sponsored. I took time off to see an awfully clever puppet show given by the French Club. Joe's kid brother Tommy went home from the Round-up with a radio—one of the many nice door prizes given away.

April 4

Met Tommie on the way to algebra. He told me that the wrestling team had competed in the city wrestling meet and tied with Creston for third place.

Barbie has just been telling me about the Art Club's gay jaunt to the Grand Rapids Art Gallery.

April 8

"I'm from Grand Haven. Where are you from?" asked a polite voice at my side. My Grand Haven friend was only one of two hundred and fifty home economics girls who attended the regional banquet — a smorgasbord dinner in honor of the speaker, Miss Marta Dalen, international scholarship student of Stockholm, Sweden.

April 14

Barbie came home scolding because she had printers' ink on her arm. The Reflect or came out late and was not completely dry when Barbie, press agent for her sixth hour class, started to distribute the papers. I assured her that plenty of soap and water would make her as good as new.

Joe and the fellows drove to Hastings after school to see the track team perform for the first time this season. Under the leadership of Herm Straub the Red Hawks ran up seventy points against their opponents' score of thirty.

April 21

I ran into Tommie's gang in the lunch room this noon. They were enthusiastically discussing the high spots of the Nature Club's early morning hike.

"Oh, Jean, you don't know how swell it is to start to school at 7:15, on a spring morning. Come on and walk with me," begged Joe. He gets to school at 7:40 a.m. every other Friday to attend the Hi-Y meeting. How those fellows think straight at that early hour is beyond me, but I liked their idea of planning a wienie roast with the Girl Reserves.

Joe, Barbie, Tommy, and I rooted for Union when they beat Central's batsmen to the tune of 8-4.

April 28

It was hard to recognize all my pals in their Sunday-go-to-meetin' clothes for Shiek's Day.

At the sunlite dance after school, we had a gay time doing the "Big Apple" and the "Shag."

April 29

Fish and trout streams. That's the only subject Joe and the fellows in the Conservation League have discussed all the past week.

Union's golf team composed of Mioduchowski, ~~Uphill~~ De Vries, Seltzer, and Kelezeski, has made a clean sweep of its matches with East Grand Rapids, Tech, Creston, and Christian. As three of the four man team are shooting in the seventies, Joe says they should win the regionals.

June 2

Barbie went to the junior high assembly today and is wondering why some people have all the luck (or is it brains?) Five dollar awards given by the freshman class went to Tom Edison and Genevieve Kwiatkowski for outstanding scholarship and to Frances Johnson and Lester Wolfson for leadership.

June 3

Senior awards assembly. The Dillingham cups, awarded to the two most outstanding seniors, were presented to Eleanor Groggel and Anthony Zimnowski. Seniors receiving gold keys were Loraine Esenwein, Ruth Jarvi, Edith Mieras, Ethel Niemi, Margaret Lapham, Corrine Sonneveldt, Alfred Haynes, Mildred Moring, Gerald Dribbin, Betty Edison, and Anthony Zimnowski.

A large number of our eagle-eyed hall guards also received awards for their labors.

The Elizabeth Slight award in home economics went to Betty Reynders. Winners of Marian Jennings foreign language awards were Frances Samice, Ethel Niemi, and Edward Wembiewski. Kenneth Broucek received the Spanish Club award.

I heard some people saying, "Lucky guys," but I think it's a matter of hard work, not luck.

Names in the News

Meet "General" LORNA GOOSMANN of the victorious Gold Army. With the spirit of a true Amazon, she led her session room to top place in the annual Round-up ticket-selling campaign. This active junior is vice-president of her class, plays a bass viol in the senior orchestra, and is president of the Girl Reserves.

The student body has been well served by the staff of the Reflector, headed by RUTH JARVI during the second semester. In addition to her work on the Reflector and Aurora staffs, she has found time to be a seventh grade counselor, secretary of the French Club, and vice-president of the National Honor Society.

"Service" is the motto of EDITH MIERAS, who is noted for her promotion of numerous campaigns and sales for school organizations. A gold key winner, Edith is a member of the Service Squad, treasurer of the Audubon Club, and has been advertising and business manager of The Reflector.

A truly versatile Unionite is ANTHONY ZIMNOWSKI, winner of the Dillingham cup and a gold key. In addition to his basketball and Varsity Club activities, he has served as president of both the senior class and the National Honor Society. Tony was also co-chairman of the Sleigh-bell Swing, held in the Dillingham gym in December.

Although he attends Sibley School and is only a prospective Unionite, BLAINE KINDIG attracted wide attention during the year when he appeared as junior drum major of Union's band. He is an accomplished baton twirler and at the age of twelve is the youngest drum major in the history of the organization.

Winner of the Dillingham memorial award and chosen the "best all-round girl" in the senior class, ELEANOR GROGGER is completing a busy high school career. Her activities include work on the Student Council, acting as chairman of the Public Relations Staff, being vice-president of the Union High Safety Club, a member of the G. U. C., and general of the Powder Blue Army in the Round up.

Names in the News

Enthusiasm and ambition have placed ALFRED HAYNES among the most active seniors. His many duties have included being managing editor of The Reflector, secretary of the Hi-Y, a member of the Aurora staff, and an actor in the senior play and operetta. Al is a favorite soloist at assemblies and vocal concerts.

Union's representative at the D. A. R. Convention at Lansing this year was LUCY ZILINSKAS, who was chosen for her excellent grades in history. She was winner of one of two junior college scholarships awarded annually by the Women's University Club to girls who are graduating from the city high schools.

The role of William Hallowell Magee, a part which usually calls for a professional actor, was effectively portrayed by FRED SEAHOLM in the senior production, "Seven Keys to Baldpate." Although assigned the part at virtually the last minute, Fred handled it like a veteran. Gifted with a rich baritone voice, he has sung at various school gatherings.

Acting as feature editor of The Reflector and associate editor of The Aurora have been two of the many activities of literary ETHEL NIEMI, winner of the Grand Rapids Safety Council essay contest held in November. A leader in both scholastic and social interests, Ethel is a member of the National Honor Society and president of the Senior Girls' League.

Six-foot two and every inch a scholar is KENNETH BROUCEK, editor-in-chief of the Aurora. A mathematics enthusiast, Kenneth is vice-president of the National Honor Society and was named "senior boy scholar" in the mock election. Kenneth has put his mathematical precision into use in the writing of headlines for The Reflector.

Here are the two luckiest Unionites. JEAN CARLEN, popular junior, broke into the news last fall when she won a much-coveted Dodge car at the Auto Show. Because he held a lucky number, MAYNARD DE VRILS became the owner of a new gas refrigerator, the grand door prize at the annual Community Council Round-up.

Marching forward again this year, Union's junior R.O.T.C. unit broke all enrollment records thus necessitating the formation of a new company and an entire new squad of sponsors.

The appearance of the two companies was considerably improved with the addition of white dress buttons to the cadet uniform. The sponsors had a complete re-styling of their uniforms for the first time at Union, they wear white corduroy skirts, red corduroy jackets, and red and white cross-hatched caps which are very becoming.

The reorganization of the rifle team added four new teams to the roster, thereby providing ———— training for some four or five times the number of cadets that formerly had this experience. Sergeants Vernon Kelley and William Mitchell won first and second places respectively for the school in the intercity ————

Rochalski, Hansen, Hubbard, Haskins, Igleski, Nichol, Kelley, and others

Character building is the keynote of R.O.T.C. training which strives to instill in the cadets qualities of neatness, poise, self-control, self-confidence, initiative, good scholarship, and good citizenship.

It was common to call it the old school work was made over the place during the 1920s and 1930s. A Dixie Dixie sign was placed at the entrance. The interior was decorated with many paintings and pictures. A lot of the work of the second summer staff was the removal of the furniture which was patterned after a country way of life. It created the "doings" of the "folks" in Union Center.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Students chosen by a faculty committee are pledged into the Union chapter of the National Honor Society at a special assembly. Members are elected on the basis of scholarship, leadership, service, and character. Outstanding juniors are received into the organization in the last semester of their junior year, and other members are chosen the last semester before graduation.

Anthony Zimnowski, Ruth Jarvi, Margaret Laphan, Frances Samiec, Kenneth Broucek, Lillian Newman, Esther Norman, Madalen S askiewicz, Marguerite Vander Werf, Lucy Zilinskas, Edward Birgelaitis, Doris Crater, Loraine Esenwein, Virginia Roh, H el Vander Lind, and Agatha Ayers were pledged as juniors.

One of the major duties of the club is counseling the seventh graders. Under the chairmanship of Lillian Newman the counselors instruct the new students in problems of school life.

One of the annual social functions of the club is a tea held immediately after the initiation assembly to which the parents of the members and the teachers are invited. The picture on the right shows one of the members introducing her mother to Miss Thomas, the adviser.

Senior Class Song

Words by Ethel Niemi
Music by Richard Goolian

As we set out to face the world,
We pause to look behind
On happy days at Union,
Care-free, content in mind
Mem'ries of you we'll e'er hold dear,
The mention of your name
Will help us on, inspire us
To reach our highest aim.
Your teachers, classes, school days, all
In every heart remain;
We're proud to say we're Unionites,
We're proud to share your fame.

Chorus:
Farewell, Union, Alma Mater,
We sing our last adieu,
We pledge our hearts and hands, we pledge
To e'er remain true blue

Farewell, Union, Alma Mater,
We'll always trust in you.
We'll sing our thanks and praise
When cherished dreams come true.

Class Will of 1938

On this the sixth day of June, in this the ninth day of the depression, or the first year of the recession, better known as 1938, as representatives of the Senior Class of this pretentious institute called Union High School, we take up our worn-out quills to pen this traditional document entitled the Class Will.

Item: To the underclassmen we leave our highly-developed technique of working the cafeteria peanut machine to get full value of that one "red" cent. If you lack the skillful touch, you'd better take a lesson from those who know how.

Item: To next year's seniors we bequeath the privilege of calling our beloved gym teacher by her nickname "Macky."

Item: To the Reflector staff of '39 we entrust the care of the tender plants now flourishing on the editor's desk. Water the plants faithfully; we always did. You'll need the inspiration the blooms give, we know.

Item: To the athletes of the next year we entrust the power of carrying the Red Hawks on to greater heights.

Item: To the basketball team in particular we extend the wish that you will gain the state championship for the school and "Doc" Ellingson.

Item: To the eighth, ninth, and tenth graders we leave the hope, although we know that we are expecting the impossible, that you will be satisfied with the school ring when you become seniors.

Item: Also to the eighth, ninth, and tenth graders we leave behind plenty of velocity and "scrimmage stuff" to help you to get through the halls and to your classes in one hundred and eighty split seconds.

Item: To the members of the weaker sex, we leave a gross of sand-paper to be used to smooth down those awful stocking snaggers in the library.

Item: To the underclassmen we leave the challenge of assisting the Union Community Council as efficaciously as we always did in putting on the Round-up. Since we were sophomores, we have helped make the event a success. Now it's your turn.

Signed,

Loraine Esenwein
Ethel Niemi

Band and Orchestra

Providing organization and more enjoyment to school and community groups is the orchestra. In addition to many appearances at both school and community festivals, the orchestra is popular at many school and community events.

And with the orchestra, the school and community groups can enjoy the best of both worlds.
